

Rachel Stornant

junior artist competition

The Rachel Stornant Junior Artist Scholarship Competition (RSJAC) is held in memory of our beloved friend and colleague, Rachel, who left us too far too soon. In her final year with us, Rachel taught a young student free of charge in order to assist her in upgrading to a new flute. We believe Rachel's final wish would have been to help promote the careers of young, budding talent in the Southeast Michigan flute community.

Eligibility: The RSJAC is open to any Michigan resident who has not yet completed the 8th grade as of the date of the final round of the competition (October 6, 2018) The RSJAC Applicants must be active SEMFA members and submit an additional application fee of $20.00. Student Membership dues of $15.00 are non-refundable and may be mailed with the application. The membership year runs from January 1, to December 31. Previous winners of the RSJAC are ineligible to compete.

Application: All applications must include a completed application form, a written essay, a letter of recommendation from private flute teacher, and necessary dues and fees. No recording is required. All applications must be received (email preferred) no later than September 22, 2018. Incomplete applications will not be accepted. Applicants will be informed of their status by September 29, 2018. Checks should be made payable to SEMFA (Southeast Michigan Flute Association).
